OUTSOURCING

Reliability and Respect in your business's development!

As the business environment becomes more and more competitive, companies are on the constant lookout for ways to differentiate themselves and gain the position they deserve in that environment.

To drive value creation while optimizing their operations and functions as quickly and efficiently as possible, many of these companies have realized that their outsourcing strategy can contribute to:

- Improved productivity
- Improved efficiency
- Reduction of operating costs
- Increased profitability

"Do what you do best, and outsource the rest."

Peter F. Drucker

WHY CHOOSE US

Apserou Shiaka & Co Ltd, your own external partner.

Apserou Shiaka & Co Ltd is a chartered accountant company which operates in Cyprus and provides auditing, tax and consulting services. The company not only offers high quality controls, but also professional excellence. By investing in its employees and technology alike, Apserou Shiaka & Co Ltd can transform its control approach in response to both the changing market conditions and customers' growing demands.

ASSIGN YOUR ACCOUNTING TASKS TO OUR EXPERIENCED ACCOUNTANTS SO THAT YOU:

Save money by reducing overhead

Outsourcing your accounting work reduces total expenditure, eliminating the cost of accountants' salaries, their training, accounting software, stationery and office supplies, as well as the cost of printing paper. By hiring us as an external partner, you are assured properly completed accounting work which eliminates the costly risk of a financial error.

Improve business performance by saving time

By entrusting your accounting tasks to our company, you will be able to channel your time into managing your business goals and developing your organisation. You will be able to direct your expertise and experience into differentiating yourself in the market, gaining the position you deserve in it.

Reduce risk

Delegating your accounting work to our team of experienced and specialized accountants will directly ensure that your books will always be up to date, payroll will be done on time and you will not risk being penalized due to inaccurate documents and payments. In addition, with our fully trained staff working on accounting, taxation and other financial areas, you will have full control over the course of your money and reduce the risk of internal fraud.
